TO ALL IAMAW MEMBERS
EMPLOYED BY AIR CANADA
LOU 29 AND e-VACANCY PROCESS

Dear Brothers and Sisters:

During the last round of Collective Bargaining the IAMAW and the Company bargained changes to the above basic testing process.

The makeup of the test has been completed for a few months and the Company is holding testing sessions in all locations.

The Company also issued GIC 2016 - 003 which explains the new e-Vacancy process regarding test scheduling, upgrades from part-time to full-time, the application and transfer processes.

This GIC was emailed directly to all employees in June and August of this year and put into ESS. It is important that all Air Canada IAMAW Members educate themselves with regards to this new process as there are some substantial changes to the LOU 29 and e-Vacancy processes.

In Solidarity,

Keith Aiken, General Chairperson
Transportation District 140
